Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) Order to Show Cause re Dismissal for Lack of Prosecution

Absent a showing of good cause, an action must be dismissed without prejudice if the summons and complaint are not served on a defendant within 90 days after the complaint is filed. Fed.R.Civ.Proc. 4(m). Generally, defendants must answer the complaint within 21 days after service (60 days if the defendant is the United States). Fed.R.Civ.Proc. 12(a)(1).

In the present case, it appears that one or more of these time periods has not been met. Accordingly, the court, on its own motion, orders Counter-claimants to show cause in writing by March 5, 2025, why this action should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution as to certain counter-defendants.

Alternatively, the Court will consider the following a satisfactory response to the Order to Show Cause:

	Alternative Response	Response Due Date	As to Counter-Defendant/s:
	Proof of TIMELY AND PROPER service of summons and operative complaint
X	Response to the operative COUNTERCLAIM	3/3/2025	Kwang S Lim JB Brothers, Inc.
X	If defendant fails to respond on the date above, Plaintiff's application for entry of default by clerk pursuant to Rule 55a of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure	3/5/2025	Kwang S Lim JB Brothers, Inc.
	Plaintiff's motion for default judgment pursuant to Rule 55b of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

If a satisfactory response is not timely filed, the matter or the listed counter-defendants will be dismissed for lack of prosecution. A stipulation to extend dates or a notice of settlement do not constitute a proper response to this order.

Pursuant to Rule 78 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the court finds that this matter is appropriate for submission without oral argument. Failure to comply with this order may result in the imposition of sanctions including dismissal of certain parties and/or the entire action for lack of prosecution without further warning.
